Excursions to Nature

The emotion of water splashing on your face at the marvelous waterfalls. The commotion of the glacier's ice thunder. In the jungle, bird songs, wetlands and swamps to navigate close to the most varied fauna: yacare caimans, golden fish, hills and lagoons at the heart of the country. Plentiful rivers. Islands with history. Close nature. At the South of the world, crystalline lakes, deep forests, imposing mountains, channels inviting to adventures. In the altitude, thousand color hills and silent white salt fields, condors and pink flamingos, cloudy forests and woods. Turquoise lagoons originated on volcanic soils. Spas. Dunes. Snow covered peaks at the Andean Range. Sunny lands populated by vineyards. Capricious rock sculptures eroded by nature on ancient lands inhabited by dinosaurs. At the Humid Pampas, fields governed by horses and deer. In the Patagonia, whales and penguins. Huge, magic, surprising, moving. Those are Argentine natural scenarios.

Route N° 40 and other journeys

The N° 40 is the unique route that crosses the Argentine territory from South to North, parallel to the Andean Range. For more than 3,230 miles, this route explores all different landscapes: scenarios that the most experienced Rally Dakar drivers have crossed; distances that can be associated with the mythical journey of Ernest "Che" Guevara. An irresistible adventure for those travelers loving challenge on wheels.

Birdwatching

80 bird families including 20 endemic neotropical South American species and 16 local endemic species. In two weeks, it is possible to watch 300-400 birds. Because, in Argentina every habitat has its own birds.

Sport Fishing

Argentina is one of the best sites in the world for sport fishing fans. A country where trout weigh more than 10 kgs. (22 lbs), surubis impress and golden fish (dorados) are an unforgettable challenge, where fishermen can enjoy the adventure in the middle of the river, only with his guide and surrounded by the purest nature; where the rhythm of towns and cities is relaxed and the day ends with an abundant meal among friends with an excellent glass of wine; a country of islands, lagoons and rivers where travelers shall return with their cameras full of amazing photos of the best captures in their lives.

City Breaks

Historical avenues with European tradition, cobblestone streets resembling foundational times, central avenues illuminated by the neon lights of theater marquees, secret passages scented by citrus pineapples. Cathedrals, hill townships, museums, antiquaries, dolists, contemporary bars, remarkable cafes and design bars. Regional and international gastronomy, popular family-run restaurants, pizzerias and exclusive flavor havens. Milongas and peñas featuring music and dance, tango and folk. Exclusive stores and author facilities. Historical trains. Evenings full of stars. Exquisite dishes accompanied by excellent wines. Rivers surrounding cities to fall in love with. To walk alone. To finish your couple's discovery with friends. To enjoy with your family. History, future, genius, sophistication and permanent charm. Those are Argentine cities.

Snow

At the feet of the Andean Range, in the province of Mendoza; at the immense Patagonia and even at the world's end, incredible breathtaking white landscapes. Sheltered by the mountains, miles of slopes, both for experts and beginners, for adults and children, with perfect snow powder suitable for every ski type and winter sports.

Adventure

At landscapes with infinite color shades, proposals to live nature with all the adrenaline. Ideal rivers for rafting, kayak and aquatic ski fans. Peaks - the highest in America - that challenge the most experienced climbers. Deep blue skies for paragliding. Dunes and lakes inviting to windsurf, kitesurf and gliding. Under the water, borderless diving for both experts and amateurs. On the glacier ice, dreamy walks. Extreme trekking at Patagonian Parks. Between the hills, on river and lagoon shores and among palm trees, ideal pathways to explore. In the jungle, nautical adventures. In the mountain, ideal roads to explore on mountain bikes. At the plateau and among the woods, horseback ridings accompanied by gauchos. Towards the world's end, cruises and exclusive helicopter flights.
