Dear Visitors,

A couple travelling across the United States recently told me they fell in love with Omaha on their first visit and hope to come back soon. We want you to feel the same way.

On behalf of our residents, we invite you to discover all the city has to offer, from the top-rated Henry Doorly Zoo and Aquarium, to Omaha-owned restaurants, exquisite museums, shoppes, beautiful parks and unique entertainment venues.

Omaha is a great city, now let's make it extraordinary!

Warmly,

Jean Stothert, Mayor
City of Omaha

Traveling To & Around Omaha

Flying To Omaha

Omaha's Eppley Airfield serves more than 4 million passengers a year and is conveniently located close to the downtown Omaha area. If you're renting a car or hopping in a cab it will take you less than 10 minutes. Eppley offers non-stop service to top destinations throughout the United States, and has more than 200 arrivals and departures daily.

Getting Around Omaha

Rental cars, taxis, limousine and shuttle bus services are available at the airport. The majority of Omaha hotels offer complimentary direct transportation to and from the airport, as well as shuttle service within a specific mile radius.

Trip Tip

E-Hail a cab by just downloading the NexTaxi app. The app allows you to request a cab, track it until it arrives, and even pay the tab, all with your smartphone.

Driving To Omaha

Omaha is conveniently located in the center of the county and in the heart of the Midwest at the junction of I-29 and I-80. Once you arrive you'll find the city is easy to navigate. The city streets are set up on a grid system, Dodge Street divides the city north and south, and numbered streets start at the Missouri River and increase as you drive west.

About The Cover

A local photographer captured these two brothers taking a 'selfie' in front of the Heartland of America Park fountain. Located between the river and downtown Omaha, it's considered one of the tallest shooting fountains in the world. More than ten thousand gallons of water per minute shoot through 31 nozzles to create a 400 ft. high water and light show beaming with more than 130,000 watts of colorful illumination. Computer controlled and remotely programmable, Omaha's fountain guru can actually change the dance of the waters and the fountain's colors by mobile phone – so each day may bring a different experience all dependent on the guru's colorful mood.

January – May 2014

Explore rare and indigenous cultures through more than 100 photographs from The Annenberg Space for Photography, curated by esteemed anthropologist Wade Davis. The exhibit highlights cultures threatened with extinction due to industrialization and modernization.

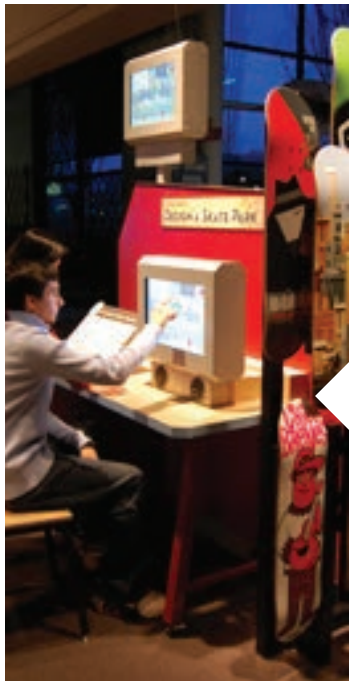

1968
The Durham Museum
February 8 – May 4, 2014

Travel back to 1968 and the non-stop barrage of events that happened that year. This major multi-media exhibit includes three interactive "lounges" that focus on music, design, movies and television. Objects from 'Star Trek,' 'Mission: Impossible,' 'Laugh-In' and 'The Smothers Brothers Comedy Hour' provide another personal connection to this fascinating year.

Poseidon and the Sea: Myth, Cult, and Daily Life

Joslyn Art Museum
February 8 – May 11, 2014
Take an artistic journey into Greek mythology with Poseidon, the God of the Sea. This remarkable Roman statue from the first century AD sets the stage for more than 100 additional works of Greek, Etruscan, and Roman art.

Design Zone

The Durham Museum
May 24 – September 14, 2014

Go behind the scenes and see how video game developers, music producers, roller coaster designers and other creative problem solvers use math and science to do the amazing things they do. Step into a DJ recording studio and discover how many beats per second it takes to get bodies moving on the dance floor. Enter a video game design studio, figure out the formulas needed to create the on-screen action, then leap through to the next level of your game challenge. It's an engaging way to discover how math and science are essential to the creative process.

Dinos: The Big Dig

Omaha Children's Museum
 May 24 – September 27, 2014

It's an adventure of prehistoric proportion. Come face-to-jaw with giant robotic dinosaurs. Grab a shovel and learn what it's like to be a paleontologist. Unearth fossils and gemstones inside massive dig pits, and pan for treasure in the Golden Nugget River.

Stingrays

Omaha's Henry Doorly
 Zoo and Aquarium

Spring/Summer 2014

The new $31.5 million conservatory is expected to open in November and include a tropical house, temperate house and gallery filled with amazing flowers and plants, making the garden a four-season must-see urban oasis.

Andy Warhol in Living Color

Joslyn Art Museum
 October 4, 2014 – January 11, 2015

Explore the world of art with the volume and color palette turned up. This contemporary print collection examines how color impacts both subject and viewer, creating a dialogue between Warhol and nineteen contemporary artists who all use color to shape how we understand images.

What's to See & Do

Attractions

Looking for fun while visiting Omaha — it's all mapped out for you. Just look for the giant blue push pins marking 15 top Omaha attractions. As you'll read here, all locations offer something that is uniquely Omaha and appeal to a wide range of interests. Specially designed maps to help point you in the right direction are available at the Omaha Visitors Center, area attractions, and Omaha hotels.

Explore Your Inner Animal

One step inside and you realize Omaha's Henry Doorly Zoo and Aquarium is a whole different kind of animal. It's home to the world's largest indoor desert which sits over the world's largest nocturnal exhibit under the world's largest geodesic dome next to America's largest indoor rainforest and zoo aquarium. Discover rare and endangered animals as you travel through exotic locations—it's the ultimate interactive zoo experience.

Omaha Children's Museum is imagination central, especially designed with kids in mind, featuring hands-on exhibits the whole family will enjoy. There's the Charlie Campbell Science and Technology Center with an inventor's workshop, science shows, and the enormous Super Gravatron ball machine which gets even bigger and better this year.

Cutting-Edge Art

Witness cutting edge art at Hot Shops Art Center, a unique warehouse where more than 80 artists entertain as they create, mold, and burn ordinary objects into works of art. Innovation is at the heart of the Bemis Center for Contemporary Art, where artists live and work in this ever-changing art gallery/studio. Right across the street is Kaneko, a unique space dedicated to innovative performances and exhibitions

The Silver Screen

Film Streams at Ruth Sokolof Theater is an intimate art house cinema experience. Watch first-run independent and foreign films, documentaries making their theatrical premier, or listen to directors give their perspectives on the classics. Located in the emerging North Downtown entertainment district known for its indie vibe.

Follow the Cobblestone Road

Cobblestone streets lined with unique boutiques, art galleries, antique emporiums, and tasty sweet shops pack the historic Old Market Entertainment District. Belly up to the bar at one of the eclectic pubs, enjoy street artists, musicians, and carriage rides. With more than 30 distinctive Omaha restaurants, you'll find plenty of flavor in the Old Market.

Meeting Monet

Thirty-eight different marbles from seven countries combine to make this pink marble museum a masterpiece—and that's just the outside of the Joslyn Art Museum. Inside, it's filled with more than 11,000 works of art from antiquity to the present featuring work from artists such as Claude Monet, Auguste Renoir, and Jackson Pollock. Free Admission.

Time Travel Without a Flux Capacitor

Climb onboard a steam train, take a look at one of the world's rarest coin collections, and enjoy an old-fashioned phosphate at an authentic 1930s soda fountain. The Durham Museum, Omaha's original art deco train station, has been transformed into a vibrant museum where you can experience the region's rich history in a fun hands-on way.

Tour the expansive campus of Boys Town. The national landmark, museum, historic chapels, gardens, and Father Flanagan's home, are all preserved in time inside this world-renowned village. New this year a QR code tour – scan the special codes located throughout the Boys Town campus and explore using your smart phone.

Catch the heritage of jazz in a part of the city where Duke Ellington and Count Basie once played. Love's Jazz and Arts Center is committed to the preservation and advancement of African American arts; the Center features guided tours, gallery talks, and interactive storytelling.

At the Mormon Trail Center, you can take a personal trip to the 1800s by experiencing firsthand the struggles and triumphs of the great Mormon Migration. Pull a handcart like pioneers did all those years ago and see what it was like to live in a make-shift cabin and travel by covered wagon.

The first Latino art and history museum in the Midwest, El Museo Latino is a cozy, culturally-intense center that is as authentic as the Latino restaurants and shops surrounding it.

Romancing the River

Enjoy a romantic gondola ride and watch the spectacular fountain at Heartland of America Park with its 400-foot high water and light show, considered one of the tallest shooting fountains in the world, or take a stroll through the park's 31-acres, located near the Old Market Entertainment District and the Bob Kerrey Pedestrian Bridge. Walking on 'Bob' is like walking on art suspended over the Missouri River. This one-of-a-kind 3,000 foot-long suspension bridge provides an almost air-borne experience. Stand in the middle, and you'll be standing in both Nebraska and Iowa at the same time. Bob connects nearly 150 miles of walking and biking trails. On select Fridays during the summer enjoy Bridge Beats, live music performances on the bridge plaza. Nearby, Lauritzen Gardens is an urban oasis with more than 100 acres of botanical beauty including a Victorian Garden, a rose garden, and a four-acre arboretum. Lauritzen is also home to two of the most powerful locomotives ever built.

Stage Right

From the largest community theater in the country to national touring groups and intimate productions, the theatre scene in Omaha is diversely entertaining.

A cultural gem celebrating its 90th season, the Omaha Community Playhouse offers two distinct theatre experiences. The Hawks Mainstage Theatre offers mainstream entertainment for everyone, while the Howard Drew Theatre offers a more contemporary, cutting-edge theatre experience.

Omaha's historic and ornate Orpheum Theater is home to Omaha Performing Arts' Broadway Across America series and Opera Omaha, which produces a season of original productions that combine great music, phenomenal singers and rich stories.

The Blue Barn Theatre, known for its daring, innovative productions and powerful acting ensemble, features four award-winning contemporary plays each season. This year marks the theatre's 25th season of performing stories that challenge both the artists and audience.

Housed in a beautifully restored 1927 vaudeville palace, The Rose Theater is one of the top children's theaters in the country. The troupe of professional actors creates performances geared toward children from 4 to 18 years of age.

The John Beasley Theater highlights live productions written by, or featuring African American characters. The theater was founded by actor John Beasley who is known for his role in the television series, Everwood, and in movies such as the Sum of All Fears with Ben Affleck.

Sports & Recreation

The Call of the Wild

For birders, walkers, and bikers, the Bob Kerrey Pedestrian Bridge connects nearly 150 miles of nature trails and provides picturesque views of the Missouri River Valley. In addition to having a top nationally ranked park system, Omaha features five lakes which offer fishing, boating, and recreational activities all year long. These lakes include Cunningham, Zorinsky, Standing Bear, Lawrence Youngman, and Bennington.

Located along the wooded Missouri River valley and along a main migratory path, it only makes sense that the Omaha area is a birding hotspot. Spring and fall are peak seasons but because the area offers diverse bird habitat – lakes, prairies, woodlands, and riverbanks – you will find a wide variety of bird species most any time of year.

tubing and Tanking

Forget the boat - try tubing and tanking down the scenic Elkhorn River. Which should you choose? It depends on how wet you want to get. With tanking, you float down the river in an 8-foot diameter stock tank fitted with custom made picnic tables. With tubing, you are a little more intimate with the water, sitting in commercial-grade inner tubes with your feet and other body parts dangling in the river. Both offer a fun way to float and enjoy the outdoors.

Par Fore the Course

With 17 public and semi-public courses, Omaha offers something for golfers of all levels. Rolling hills and tree lined fairways, water hazards and sand traps, each course has its own character filled with competitive challenges. From executive style to championship courses, enjoy playing Omaha's unique golf landscape.

Buy a ForePlay Pass and play four great 18-hole city courses, with cart rental, all for just $120.00. Check it out on the special offers page at VisitOmaha.com.

Trip Tip

Watch, Cheer and Wager

Omaha's sporting landscape offers an interesting variety of spectator sports including NCAA baseball, USHL Hockey, arena football, horse racing, even roller derby.

Every June, Omaha is the place to be for the best in college baseball. The NCAA College World Series at TD Ameritrade Park Omaha is a tradition worth experiencing.

Watch and wager on horse racing seven days a week at one of the finest simulcast facilities in the country. Horsemen's Park seats 3,000 and broadcasts races from coast to coast on more than 700 televisions. In July, Horseman's hosts four days of live racing at the track.

The Ralston Arena is the place to take in Omaha Lancers hockey, Omaha Beef arena football, women's roller derby and the women's lingerie football league - quite an entertaining mix.

What's to See & Do

Day Trips

Wine Country

A wonderful way to savor the day is with wine. Just a short drive from Omaha, find some of the Midwest's finest wineries, known for their distinctive and award-winning flavors. Enjoy wine tours, tastings and entertainment, as well as beautiful views of the countryside - just follow the Southeast Nebraska Wine Trail and make a day of it, or several. The eight vineyards along the Wine Trail offer everything from spectacular views of the Platte River Valley to tasting rooms inside turn-of-the-century brick caves. One of the wineries even sits on land once owned by Ulysses S. Grant. It's a great way to soak up the beautiful scenery and experience Nebraska's unique brand of wine-making.

Saunders County

A short drive west of Omaha on Hwy 92 will take you to picturesque Saunders County. Rural in nature peppered with Main Street appeal, history and surprises that seem to pop out of nowhere - like the home office of David Letterman, it's located in the small town of Wahoo, which is also home to the only submarine memorial in the country.

Or follow an impulse, turn off the highway and discover Our Corner Cottage, an amazingly eclectic gift shop sprouting among the corn.

In Ashland, find an authentic small town main street lined with gift shops, galleries, unique shops and an old fashioned ice cream parlor. Ashland is located on historic U.S. Route 6, considered the longest highway in the U.S.

Hidden away in the beautiful vistas of Saunders County is Iron Horse Golf Club, an award winning course that Golf Digest considers one of the best.

Adventure at Exit 426

Exit 426 is just a short drive west of Omaha and offers a variety of different adventures. Go on safari - Nebraska style - at the Lee Simmons Wildlife Safari and Conservation Park, a four mile, drive-through wildlife experience. Stretch your legs with a walk to wolf and bear canyon, and hike the nature trails surrounding the park's lake. New this year, the Crane Meadows Viewing Tower, climb up 28 feet to get a bird's eye view of nature. Cool fact – the tower is actually a piece of baseball history, it was saved when historic Rosenblatt Stadium was torn down.

Drive across the road and off to space. The Strategic Air & Space Museum is a 300,000 square foot museum dedicated to the nation's most prized and rarely displayed military aircraft. Experience the future of aviation and space travel, walk through two aircraft display hangers and see Looking Glass, Voodoo, the Delta Dagger and more amazing flying machines.

Nearby, Mahoney State Park offers a nature escape year-round. With a total of 700 acres nestled along the picturesque Platte River, it's a great place to hike, bike, and ride horses, go paddle boating, fish and sled (in the winter). The Peter Kiewit Lodge at Mahoney includes a full service restaurant; the Mahoney Grill is open every day, except Christmas. Sunday Brunch is one of the specialties.

On the drive back to Omaha, notice a stunning glass chapel on a hilltop just off I-80. The Holy Family Shrine was created for travelers as an oasis for peace and tranquility. Two streams cut through the limestone that forms the floor and foundation of the chapel. Its unique glass architecture, with its curved wooden arches, makes it a perfect place to stop and enjoy the beauty of the area.

Where to Eat & Play

Dining

World Tour of Taste

In Omaha, a whole world of flavor awaits—no passport required. Take a trip to the Czech Republic with a visit to the Bohemian Cafe, listed as one of Bon Appetite Magazine's top 10 family-owned restaurants. Dine in Spanish style at España Restaurant Tapas Bar Paella Sangria, Omaha's premier tapas bar, also known for its phenomenal array of sangrias. The Jaipur Brewing Company offers authentic East Indian cuisine complete with Chicken Tikki Naan with Mulligatawny soup. The brie and pear crepes, as well as the Croque-Monsieur are just two of the many tasty French specialties at Dario's Brasserie.

Bohemian Café

Crescent Moon

The Drover

Classic Cuisines

There is no denying that Omaha is known for mouthwatering steaks. The fun (and delicious) 'Great Omaha Steak Debate' continues to spark friendly discussions on where to get the best Omaha steak. Anthony's Steakhouse built a strong reputation by using a dry aging process on Premium Black Angus Beef guaranteeing a tender and flavorful cut of meat. The Drover is known for whisky marinated steaks, featuring the best Certified Angus Beef around. The Travel Channel's Food Wars stopped in Omaha to find the best strip steak, and pitted Italian steakhouses Caniglia's Venice Inn against Piccolo Pete's. Out of the two history-rich steakhouses, Caniglia's won, but ask Omaha billionaire Warren Buffett and he'll likely point you to Piccolo Pete's and Gorat's. So who does make the best Omaha steak? You be the judge.

Raising Reuben

The origins of the Reuben sandwich has been a long standing debate throughout the years—but the theory that rings most true is the sandwich's creation at Omaha's Blackstone Hotel in the early 1900s. A few steps away from the Reuben's original stomping ground is the Crescent Moon, a current hotspot for the culinary favorite. Stop by and sink your teeth into two pieces of grilled marbled rye stuffed with slow cooked corned beef topped with sauerkraut, bubbly Swiss cheese and creamy Thousand Island dressing—aptly named the Blackstone Reuben. The Reuben has been a menu staple at the Dundee Dell since 1934. Choose from corned beef or turkey and taste test their super secret sauce. Just don't be surprised if you see international rock icon and Dell regular, Bono sitting in the next booth. Along with the Crescent Moon and Dundee Dell, Visit Omaha's Facebook fans named Brazen Head Irish Pub, Razzy's Deli and Goldberg's Bar & Grill as the best spots to enjoy the famed sandwich.

Here Fishy, Fishy...

Omaha's eclectic menu features the best of both land and sea. Blue Sushi has developed a reputation among locals because of its Asian-influenced entrees and masterfully crafted sushi plates. Right across the street is Plank, Omaha's new coastally-inspired oyster bar and seafood grill. Sakura Bana takes pride in its authentic Japanese roots and creative sushi menu perfect for sushi lovers and novices. Visitors are welcome to take a seat at the sushi bar and watch the chefs create one-of-a-kind rolls. Both Hiro 88 and Ponzu Sushi craft food nearly too beautiful to eat but too hard to resist, with menu items that include Cilantro Ponzu Hamachi, Chilean Sea Bass and a host of creatively displayed sushi.

Blue Sushi

Wheatfield's

A Whole lot of Yum!

In Omaha, dessert takes the cake, the pie, the pastry, and the ice cream. The heavenly desserts at Delicé, German cakes at Gerda's, and the Neapolitan tortes at the Lithuanian Bakery are mouth-watering layers of European goodness. Ted and Wally's is a sweet Omaha institution churning up fresh homemade ice cream flavors daily, such as Caramel Pecan Pie and Cosmo Coffee Crunch. Omaha's ice cream craze hit the national stage with eCreamery and its customizable flavors, featured on ABC's The Shark Tank, The View, Today Show, and Rachael Ray. Pastry palate pleasers are also an Omaha specialty. Wheatfield's Eatery and Bakery, known for old-home recipes, offers everything from pecan rolls to cheesecake by the foot. Fans of the Food Network's Cupcake Wars have seen several Omaha originals battle for sweet glory, Jones Bros. Cupcakes, Bliss Bakery and Mockingbird Cupcakes. All specialize in unique treats such as the Car Bomb, a combination of Guinness, chocolate, Irish whisky ganache topped with Bailey's butter cream frosting. Get stranded on Cupcake Island with cupcake sizes ranging from mini to jumbo and flavors from turtle fudge to Devil's Food Among Us. At the Cordial Cherry, dessert is a little fruit and a whole lot of chocolate. Enjoy more than 50 types of chocolate covered cherries and learn that a sweet sugar high is only a chocolate drip away.

Pitch Pizza

Grab a Slice of Za

Neapolitan, coal-fire, grilled, Chicago, Sicilian, hand tossed – no matter your style preference Omaha's got a slice for you! An Omaha pizza institution, La Casa has been serving up historic Neapolitan-style za for three generations. Try an order of Melanzana Fritta (Eggplant Fries) or Carciofi as a side to one of La Casa's specialty pizzas. Pitch Pizzeria brings new meaning to the phrase pitch perfect. Enjoy coal-fire pizza, creamy flame-broiled pastas and their famous roasted brussels sprouts – yes, you will want to eat your vegetables! Just driving by Orsi's Bakery & Pizzeria, you're immediately drawn to the aroma of fresh baked bread and melting Italian cheeses. The hearty Sicilian style pizza has been satisfying the cravings of locals for nearly 100 years.

DROVER

The aroma and sizzle of a succulent Omaha steak are unlike anything, anywhere else in the world. The fork-tenderness and delectable flavors of Omaha's steaks need no additional seasoning but a little salt. The sublime experience is enough for many vegetarians to forego their diet for one meal.

The #1 question hotel concierges are asked: "Where do I go to get a good Omaha steak?" The locals all have their favorites and several are featured here.

Where to Eat & Play

Nightlife

Omaha's nightlife ranges from ultra sophisticated to warm and friendly. So grab a seat and raise your glass because it's going to be a good night.

Sophisticated...

Wine serves as the perfect accessory to a fine French meal, the main attraction, or anything in between. A wine aficionado's heaven, brix is best described as a total wine experience. The brix Wine Bistro serves 64 wines by the ounce or by the glass from the Enomatic Wine Serving System, an innovative wine dispenser from Italy. Walking into La Buvette is similar to walking into a petite French café. Located in Omaha's Old Market Entertainment District, La Buvette offers more than 100 different bottles of wine and appetizers such as smoked salmon and foie gras. Urban Wine Company invites both wine connoisseur and novice to come and enjoy the cool atmosphere and eclectic food options including a complete sushi menu. Also enjoy Corkscrew Wine & Cheese, Lot 2's Wine Bar and Nosh Wine Lounge. . . the wine list could go on and on. . .

La Buvette

Beer Corner USA

Huber Haus

Upstream Brewery

...and Friendly

Whether it's the light zest of cold ale, the mild flavor of a frosty lager, or the heavy malt taste of a dark stout, Omaha is your beer country. Beer Corner USA is a friendly oasis offering four different experiences all in one spot; Huber Haus is an authentic German beer hall with bier, brats and Das boots; Max and Joe's is the cozy neighborhood tavern; Crescent Moon is consistently ranked as one of the top beer bars in the country by Draft Magazine; and Beertopia, Omaha's premier beer emporium offers nearly 600 international specialty beers. An Omaha original, Upstream Brewery is known for creating innovative flavors, the award-winning, hand-crafted beers are brewed fresh on-site. Nestled against Omaha's riverfront you'll find the brand new Storz Trophy Room Grill & Brewery filled with memorabilia from the historic Omaha brewing company and serving steak (a beer's best friend). Jaipur Brewing Company is a two barrel brewery serving fresh brews to compliment the Indian-fused cuisine. Pull up a seat and find more Omaha watering holes at VisitOmaha.com/nightlife.

The Slowdown

Hot Spots for Cool Music

Recently named the #2 city in the world for up-and-coming music by MTV Iggy, Omaha's music scene is on fire. Omaha ranked with cities such as Santiago, Chile; Athens, Greece; and Barcelona, Spain. The birthplace of nationally known artists such as Conor Oberst, The Faint and Cursive, Omaha's indie music scene continues to grow. Sokol Underground is the original Omaha indie concert hall, and The Slowdown, one of the best indie-music venues in the nation, lives up to its name, giving music lovers a place to chill and be entertained. The award-winning arena, CenturyLink Center Omaha, attracts top touring acts from across the country. The 18,300-seat arena hosts everything from blockbuster performances to intimate shows. For a twist, the audience provides the live music at DJ's Dugout. Stop by for a night of laughing and singing along with the dueling pianos. Omaha's live music scene lights up all week long in bars, clubs and pubs throughout the city including, Downtown Blues, Barley St. Tavern and PS Collective. Find more live music options at VisitOmaha.com/livemusic.

CenturyLink Center Omaha

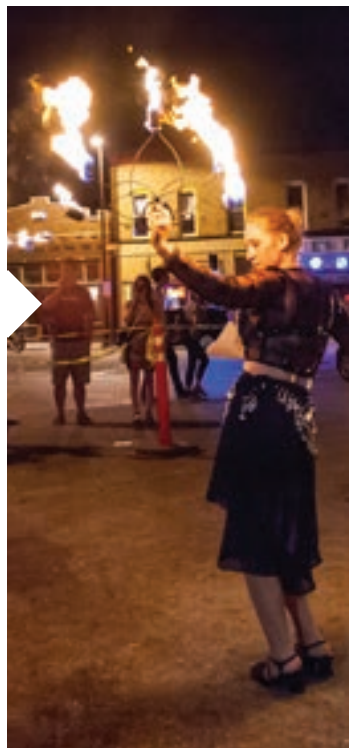

Benson

The Benson Bar Crawl

The historic Benson area is a trendy neighborhood famous for its diverse crowd, hip atmosphere and vibrant music scene. A little-known Benson treasure is Sam, the beloved party dog of Burke's Pub. This friendly Great Dane entertains patrons and enhances the care free vibe of this neighborhood bar, which is also home to the world-famous apple pie shot and complimentary fresh popcorn. Sam is not the only four-legged friend who enjoys Benson's nightlife. Shooter, the Benson Bar Cat, can be seen strolling through local favorites and greeting visitors during his nightly bar crawl. After making new friends, spice up the night with one of Krug Park's 11 unique Bloody Mary mixtures or choose from 50 brews on tap. Head over to Beercade for a craft beer and challenge your friends to classic arcade games such as Skee-ball, Pacman, and Joust. For more indie rock music, catch a live performance at The Waiting Room. The club captures Benson's cool vibe and hosts national, regional and local artists. The cool atmosphere, cold beer and hot music, along with a couple of party animals, make every night out in Benson one to remember. For more entertaining neighborhoods go to page 72.

Where to Eat & Play

Entertaining Neighborhoods

From historic and urban chic to scrumptious and ultra hip, Omaha is peppered with entertaining neighborhoods each offering a distinct experience.

Old Market

Omaha's Old Market

This historic warehouse district has been transformed into a bustling nightlife, shopping and dining destination. Wander in and out of the many shops and galleries that line the old cobblestone streets. Eat from chef-inspired menus at Omaha originals and enjoy finding the perfect little pub where people watching is part of the appeal. The Old Market is a stay and play destination for the whole family.

North Downtown Omaha (NoDo)

Urban hip fills each corner of the North Downtown (NoDo) Entertainment District. See top indie rock bands at The Slowdown, one of the nation's hottest venues. Catch a first-run independent film or documentary at the intimate cinema art house, Film Streams at Ruth Sokolof Theater. Shop the latest trends at Urban Outfitters. Or relax with friends at Goodnights Pizza, Blue Line Coffee or atop Blatt Beer & Table overlooking NoDo. Live sporting events create an electrifying atmosphere at TD Ameritrade Park Omaha, home of the NCAA Men's College World Series, and national performers light up the stage in the award-winning CenturyLink Center Omaha arena. The party continues at the many surrounding bars and lounges.

North Downtown

Midtown Crossing

This urban chic neighborhood is home to a collection of restaurants ranging from upscale Mexican food at Cantina Laredo and contemporary cuisine at Crave to fast-casual at Ingredient. Check out brix, a unique wine bar/retail shop with more than 1,200 wines from across the world. Enjoy dinner and a show at the Marcus CineDine Theater, offering a full in-theater dining and cocktail menu. During the summer, Jazz on the Green fills Midtown and offers a relaxing way to spend a Thursday evening. Even four-legged family members can find souvenirs and customized treats at Three Dog Bakery.

Midtown Crossing

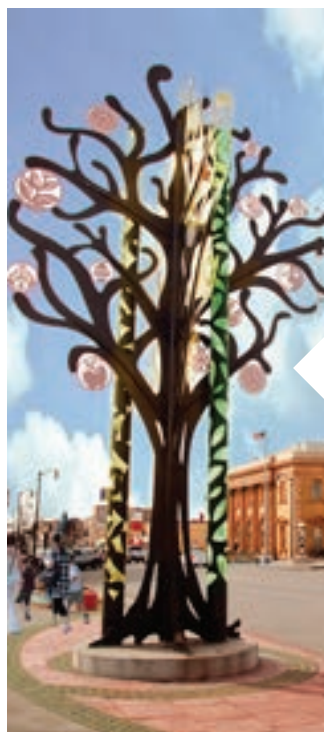

Aksarben Village

A mixed-use development combining urban living with entertainment and dining, Aksarben Village is home to several restaurants including Ponzu Sushi & Grill and Mai Thai Restaurant. Attracting young college adults, Aksarben's Stinson Park hosts an array of outdoor events including the Riverfront Wine Festival, Omaha Beer Fest and Artsarben, a festival showcasing art by 80 artists from across the country.

Dundee

Centrally located, Dundee's historic streets are lined with cozy restaurants, one-of-a-kind shops and friendly bars frequented by the neighborhood's residents. Included on the National Register of Historic Places, Dundee has stayed true to its classic roots while mixing in the hip vibe of a burgeoning neighborhood. One of the most interesting facts about Dundee occurred in 1945 during World War II. Very few Japanese balloon bombs made it as far inland as the single incendiary balloon that exploded over the Omaha Dundee neighborhood. Today, a plaque now commemorates the spot where the bomb exploded.

South Omaha

Explore the sights, flavors and aroma in the South Omaha district. With historic ties to cultures from across the globe, South Omaha continues to celebrate its Polish, Czech, German and Mexican heritage through food and art. Enjoy carne asada tacos at Taqueria Tijuana, a customary Polish meal at the Bohemian Café, or grab a Yo-Yo (a traditional Latino pastry) at the International Bakery. Finding just one souvenir can be a challenge with dozens of one-of-a-kind neighborhood shops including the World of Mexican Pottery. Throughout the year, South Omaha shines with an array of festivals. The Czech-Slovak Festival, Cinco de Mayo and the Vinton Street Creativity Festival help round out a diverse calendar. Be sure to snag a photo of the iconic Tree of Life, a public art piece that symbolizes the varied cultures of the area. Find your complete passport to South Omaha at VisitOmaha.com.

Sam Mercer
1920-2013

At the end of the 19th century, Omaha was in its prime as a great railroad center, connecting the settled East with the wide-open West. The Old Market area was at the height of its splendor—bustling with produce dealers, buyers and transporters.

The bustle continued until the 1950s when Omaha's westward expansion and radical changes in grocery marketing abruptly brought the activity to a halt. That's when Sam Mercer, threatened with building condemnation notices, proposed to rescue his family's red brick warehouses by renovating them for new uses. Most people thought him imprudent. Today, they call him a visionary.

Mercer's role has been a delicate balance of making things happen and allowing things to evolve. Nonetheless, he is the first to admit that there never was a master plan for developing the Old Market. "We knew these warehouses had possibilities, and to tear them down to construct contemporary buildings would have been like painting over the Mona Lisa." Change happens all the time, but it has to be the right kind of change. Preservation and maintenance of the architectural integrity of the buildings remains a guiding principle.

THE OLD MARKET

Whether you're a first-time tourist, a downtown worker or an Omaha resident, there is always something to see and do in the Old Market.

The Old Market—with its brick streets, unique shops and restaurants, constantly changing art, and carriage rides—gives you the opportunity to experience the history and heart of Omaha. It is located in the oldest part of town so a lot of the original flavor of the old buildings has been preserved, making it a pleasure to see as well as walk around.

DINING

The Old Market features some of the city's best restaurants. No matter what you are interested in, there is a restaurant that will satisfy the palate, all unique, some very upscale. How about eating outside when the weather is beautiful? There are more than a dozen locations to pick from. Want something more casual? Less expensive? Family oriented? Ethnic? You never need to leave the Old Market to find great food!

BARS & PUBS

The Old Market has great bars and pubs that offer many different types of atmospheres—everything from sports bars to bars with entertainment. There are over 20 different locations within the Old Market that offer something for everyone.

Shop-Worthy

Little pieces of shopping heaven are sprinkled throughout the city. Omaha's historic Old Market Entertainment District features cobblestone streets lined with unique boutiques, antique emporiums and art galleries, along with pubs, great restaurants and sweet shops (just in case you need to re-energize for more shopping). Nouvelle Eve is an Old Market favorite with right-off-the-runway fashion and jewelry. Other Old Market shops include Nebraska the Market, Overland Sheepskin, and City Limits filled wall-to-wall with funky gifts, unique greeting cards and even a corner dedicated to bacon-inspired products (think car fresheners, action figures and candy). Find one-of-a-kind home décor at Old Market Niche, and shop for the holidays year-round at Tannenbaum Christmas Shop. Snag your Omaha souvenirs and gifts at the Omaha Visitors Center including the ever popular 'I ♥ Omaha' and 'I Walked on Bob' t-shirts. The Shops of Legacy is another boutique shopping hot spot dedicated to non-chain establishments. Find the latest fashion trends at Mesh, Katina's Couture, The Garment District, Sublime Couture, Togs, The Giving Tree, beyourself and Skyz Boutique. Other great shopping spots include Countryside Village and Rockbrook Village—an extra suitcase might be in order.

Make a Masterpiece

Omaha's creative spirit shines in the distinctive artwork found in local galleries around the city. Images of Nature Gallery in the Old Market is filled with exquisite limited edition photographs that capture nature in a whole new way. More than a dozen artists sell their work at the Old Market Artists Gallery, which holds "First Friday" receptions each month from 6 to 9pm, and "Gallery Walks" on the 2nd Wednesday of the month (May-December) from 5 to 8pm.

The Omaha Creative Institute invites visitors to "Come Create It" workshops ranging from African drumming and glassblowing to ceramics. Sip on a glass of your favorite vino and paint a work of art at Village Canvas & Cabernet, The Corky Canvas, Uncorked or Pinot's Palette. Other DIY art spots include That Pottery Place, The ArtRoom and It's Your Pottery.

Check out more of Omaha's artsy side in this section of the guide or by going to VisitOmaha.com.

Village Pointe Shopping Center

Borsheims at Regency Court

Mall-o-rama

The flower-lined streets of Village Pointe Shopping Center are reminiscent of the nostalgic "Main Street" while offering upscale shopping and national favorites. Enjoy more than 60 specialty shops such as Ann Taylor, J Crew, Apple, Banana Republic, Sephora, DSW and Coach, just to name a few. After a whirl on the Scheels Ferris Wheel, catch a comedy show or a free outdoor concert on Saturday nights during the summer.

Omaha's indoor shopping offers many of your favorite national brand names. Westroads, Nebraska's largest shopping mall, offers more than 135 specialty stores, including popular department store Von Maur, Younkers, JCPenney and Dick's Sporting Goods. Spend the day shopping and wind down with a movie or grab a meal at The Cheesecake Factory, P.F. Chang's or Granite City Brewery. Not too far away, royalty-worthy shopping waits at Regency Court. The king of the court is Borsheims, the nation's largest independent jewelry store owned by billionaire investor Warren Buffett. Head west to Oak View Mall to find two levels of shopping filled with name brand retailers.

For over 100 years, the Omaha community has made a tradition of giving the silver box with the burgundy ribbon.

Let us help you with your celebration today.

DUNDEE

The Dundee-Happy Hollow Historic District is located west of Midtown Omaha, Nebraska. It covers the area between Leavenworth Street on the south, Hamilton Street on the north, Happy Hollow Boulevard on the west, and 46th Street on the east. The “heart” of Dundee is located at 50th and Underwood Avenue in Omaha, Nebraska, United States. Founded in 1880 and annexed into the city in 1915. Dundee is home to Warren Buffett and nationally syndicated editorial cartoonist Jeff Koterba and birthplace of Academy Award winning filmmaker Alexander Payne.
