HONG KONG

With its subtropical climate, beautiful scenery, a flood of electronic gadgets, lively nightlife and exquisite food, Hong Kong is a tourist's paradise!

Twenty-five million people come here every year – to a city with one of the highest densities of skyscrapers in the world.

THE CITY

Hong Kong is a young, pulsating city full of energy. This is evident to anyone standing on the quay in Tsim Sha Tsui and looking at Hong Kong Island's impressive skyscraper horizon. Furthermore, this is a city which has succeeded in making an art out of squeezing seven million people into an area of 1000 square kilometres. You can find everything here: some of the world's most exciting skyscraper architecture, fashionable shopping malls, a subtropical wilderness and one of the world's hottest financial districts.

The crossroads between Queen's Road and Pedder Street is said to be the busiest in the world. Among the crowds in central Hong Kong, the visitor will find many of the most attractive shops, as well as the main entertainment district of Lan Kwai Fong.

SoHo – south of Hollywood Road – is where you will find the world's largest system of interconnected escalators, a vibrating artery linking together restaurants, cafés, bars, interior design shops and shopping malls. For the fashion-conscious, a visit to Causeway Bay is recommended - here it is chiefly young people who enjoy combing the fashion boutiques until late into the evening.

Anyone who loses their way in the alleys of the technology paradise of Kowloon will find their way to an interesting restaurant in the Chinese quarter of Central or decide to take a swim in Stanley... And so it continues. Hong Kong is an adventure.

DO & SEE

@Adam Rehal

Temples, museums, amusement parks and lookout points. Hong Kong has a great variety of sights to see. Why not visit the Man Mo Temple? Or the night-time market in Temple Street?

Taoist Temple

Taoist temple is one of the most frequented temples in Hong Kong. While the older Hong Kong residents pray to Man, God of Literature, and the God of War, Mo, you can go up to the altar and collect a box of prophecy sticks. Shake the box until one of the sticks falls out – then go to one of the fortune-teller stalls and get to know your future.

Address: 124-126 Hollywood Rd, Sheung Wan
Opening hours: 8am-6pm
Phone: +852 2830 2916

Hong Kong Museum Of Art

If you want to see classical Chinese art and calligraphy, you have come to the right place. Apart from a solid collection of classical work, the highlight of Hong Kong's Museum of Art is the collection of old photographs and prints from the Colonial era.

*Address: 10 Salisbury Rd, Tsim Sha Tsui
Phone: +852 2721 0116
Internet: www.lcsd.gov.hk/hkma*

Hong Kong Museum Of History

This museum looks back in time go through the eight rooms which range from prehistoric times to the hand-over to China in 1997. Here you can see everything from traditional Chinese clothes and an old reconstructed street from 1881 to toys from the 1970's.

*Address: 100 Chatham Rd, Tsim Sha Tsui
Phone: +852 2724 9024
Internet: <http://hk.history.museum> and www.lcsd.gov.hk*

Victoria Peak

Victoria Peak is an absolute must for visitors to Hong Kong – ascend 522 metres by tram and look out over the entire city – just make sure that it is not a foggy day. Victoria Peak has always been an area for the propertied classes, and nowadays this also means that Hong Kong's best promenade is to be found in the leafy, quiet area around the peak station.

*Address: Peak Tower, Peak Road
Opening hours: The tram leaves every ten minutes and runs between 7 am and midnight.
Internet: www.thepeak.com.hk
More information: Take the tram from Garden Road or Cotton Tree Drive.*

Hong Kong Zoological And Botanical Gardens

Here you will find hundreds of different species of birds and exotic plants in a beautiful setting filled with fountains and sculptures. West of Garden Road, which runs straight through the gardens, you will find the zoo with an impressive collection of endangered species.

*Address: Albany Rd
Opening hours: Park 6am-10pm, zoo 7am-7pm, Plant house 9am-4.30pm.
Phone: +852 2530 0154
Internet: www.lcsd.gov.hk/parks/hkzbg
More information: Bus 3B, 12, 40*

Pak Tai Temple

This Taoist temple was built in 1860's in honour of Pak Tai, something as contradictory as a peace-keeping god of war.

Look into one of the side rooms where old men are seated building small paper and bamboo models of everything that they want to carry with them in the afterlife.

*Address: Lung On Rd, at Queen's Rd East
More information: Bus 6, 10, 15*

Ocean Park

Hong Kong's largest amusement park. Take a dizzy ride on the roller coaster, experience the world's largest aquarium or watch one of the many animal shows.

*Address: Ocean Park Rd, Aberdeen
Opening hours: 10am - 6pm
Phone: +852 3923 2323
Internet: www.oceanpark.com.hk
More information: Bus: 6A, 6X and 629*

Star Ferry

Since 1888, this oval, double-decker ferry has transported the residents of Hong Kong between Kowloon and Hong Kong Island, and although there is now an alternative, Star Ferries not only provides an insight into the day-to-day life of Hong Kong but also offers the cheapest and best view from the sea.

There are four different trips, but the most popular is between Central and Tsim Sha Tsui.

*Opening hours: 6.30am-11.30pm, boats leave every six to twelve minutes.
Phone: +852 2367 7065
Internet: www.starferry.com.hk*

Disneyland

Step into a world of exciting and enchanting lands! Enjoy tales and adventures in exciting attractions. Here, dreams are brought magically to life for both the young and the ones young at heart! The park is divided into four main areas Fantasyland - the "happiest kingdom of them all Tomorrowland - like our dreams, is timeless Adventureland - into the heart of uncharted jungles and Main Street, USA - the picturesque boulevard of dreams.

Address: Hong Kong Disneyland, Lantau Island
Opening hours: Daily from 10.30am to 8pm (hours may differ on public holidays)
Price: One-Day Tickets are HKD 350 (Adult), HKD 250 (children btw 3-11 yrs)

More information: Travel on the railway network of MTR and interchange for the Disneyland Resort Line at Sunny Bay Station. Bus routes R11, R22, R33, R42 (operate only during morning and evening peak hours)

EATING

In Hong Kong you can eat food from around the world: Thai, Indian, British, Italian and not least, Chinese. You can eat well for a little or a lot – it is often the decor that determines the price tag.

Café Deco

Enjoy Hong Kong's best view while you eat dinner at Café Deco. Here, high up on Victoria Peak, you can eat fish, seafood and grilled dishes. From Thursday to Saturday there is a live jazz band.

Address: Peak Galleria, 118 Peak Road
Phone: +852 2849 5111
Internet: www.cafedecogroup.com

Spring Deer

This is a good choice for those who want to sample rustic, northern Chinese cuisine. Spring Deer has the best Peking duck in Hong Kong. The only problem is that it is so popular that you have to book in advance.

Address: 42 Mody Road, Tsim Sha Tsui
Phone: +852 2366 4012

Open Kitchen

This bistro has a reasonably priced menu consisting of Indian, Malay and Italian food. The slightly Bohemian atmosphere and the fantastic view over the harbour make Open Kitchen a very good alternative for lunch, dinner or an afternoon drink.

Address: Sixth floor, Hong Kong Arts Centre, 2 Harbour Rd, Wan Chai
Phone: +852 2827 2923
Internet: www.openkitchen.com

Petrus

Petrus is without a doubt Hong Kong's best French restaurant and, although it is in The Island Shangri-La hotel complex, it offers traditional French cuisine and a magnificent view of the harbour.

Address: Island Shangri-La Hotel, Pacific Place, Supreme Court Road, Admiralty
Phone: +852 2820 8590

Che's Cantonese Restaurant

This restaurant serves exquisite Cantonese home cooking. Ask for the special menu of the season which has a dozen special dishes depending on the time of year.

Address: Fourth floor, The Broadway, 54-62 Lockhart Road, Wan Chai
Phone: +852 2528 1123

Jumbo Floating Restaurant

Jumbo Floating Restaurant may look like a glorious mixture of Forbidden City and Las Vegas, but it is the right choice if you want to try out the floating restaurants of Aberdeen Harbour. The menu comprises a mixture of traditional Chinese food – with dim sum every Sunday morning.

Address: Shum Wan Pier Drive, Wong Chuk Hang, Aberdeen
Phone: +852 2553 9111
Internet: www.jumbo.com.hk
More information: Free boat leaves from Aberdeen Promenade.

Felix

Hong Kong's cosiest restaurant was given a lift when it was refurbished by the designer Philippe Starck. At this fantastic, Art Deco-inspired restaurant you can eat anything from barbecued spareribs to lobster nachos.

Address: 28th floor, Peninsula Hong Kong, Salisbury Road, Tsim Sha Tsui
Phone: +852 2315 3188
Internet: www.peninsula.com

Yi Jiang Nan

At this pleasant Chinese restaurant delicious Shanghai and northern Chinese cuisine is served on good-sized, black wooden tables. The trendy atmosphere is mellowed by attentive waiters and cosy lighting from lamps made of old bird cages.

Address: 33-35 Staunton Street, Soho
Phone: +852 2136 0886

M At The Fringe

Australian restaurant-owner Michelle Garnaut has become a Hong Kong institution since she opened the high-class restaurant M at the Fringe in the nineties. High-class, international cuisine is served here on starched table-cloths. Book a table in advance.

Address: 2 Lower Albert Road, Central
Phone: +852 2877 4000
Internet: www.m-atthefringe.com

Yung Kee

No trip to Hong Kong is complete without a visit to the traditional Cantonese restaurant Yung Kee. Here you should try young roast goose and barbecued pork when you eat dim sum.

Address: 32-40 Wellington Street, Central
Phone: +852 2522 1624
Internet: www.yungkee.com.hk

One-thirtyone

This beautiful restaurant is located in a 3 storey village house nestled on the bay of Three Fathoms Cove outside Hong Kong. It has no fixed menu as the chef would decide demanding on what ingredients he can get. They offer a 4 course lunch and a 6 course dinner. There are not a lot of tables so make sure to book well in advance.

Address: 131 Tseng Tau Vill.
Phone: +852 2791 2684
Internet: www.one-thirtyone.com

Long Men Lou

This is a vegetarian restaurant located within the Chi Lin Nunnery. It is open for the public and is situated behind a man-made waterfall within the garden connected to the nunnery. The restaurant offers great Chinese vegetarian meals. It is often very busy over the weekend but no reservation is accepted. It is better to be there early. The nunnery itself is also a fantastic place to visit as it was built using the same technique and style of the Tang Dynasty.

Address: 5 Chi Lin Drive, Diamond Hill, New Kowloon
Phone: +852 2354 1888

The Press Room

The restaurants philosophy is to serve simple food made from the finest ingredients, served in a friendly and relaxed atmosphere. And they follow their philosophy. Even though the décor is quite simple, it has a very pleasant, bustling environment at night and the food is great and reasonably priced.

Internet: www.thepressroom.com.hk

Dim Sum

The most typical Hong Kong cuisine is dim sum, or “yum cha” as it is also called (literally: “drink tea”).

Dim sum is eaten as a kind of brunch and consists of a large number of fancy dishes, including among other things, dumplings, fried vegetables, spring rolls and meat-balls.

Heichinrou

The most luxurious dim sum to be found in Hong Kong. The cream of Hong Kong society gathers here on public holidays to eat the exquisite, fancy dishes in elegant surroundings.

*Address: Second floor, Lippo Sun Plaza, 28 Canton Road
Phone: +852 2375 7123
Internet: www.heichinrou.com*

Lin Heung Tea House

A local Cantonese tea house with good – and inexpensive – dim sum. Select the dishes you would like from the trolleys which the waiters bring to the table.

*Address: 160-164 Wellington Street, Central
Phone: +852 2544 4556*

BARS & NIGHTLIFE

@Yun Leung Young

In part, this means that Hong Kong only wakes up in the evening – the pleasure-seeking Hong Kong visitor has plenty to choose from. Irrespective of whether you like English pubs, karaoke palaces or designer bars.

Most of the action is in Central, but for those who want to experience more authentic nightlife, it is worth going to Causeway Bay or Tsim Sha Tsui. Dance your night away to whatever beat you may prefer. May it be hip hop, eclectic house or dance music, there’s something for everyone!

Feather Boa

If you know how to throw a feather boa around your neck, this is the place for you – the yellow curtains at Feather Boa conceal an imaginative lounge and divine mango daiquiris.

*Address: 38 Staunton Street, Soho
Phone: +852 2857 2586*

Club 1911

Colonial nostalgia at its best – the décor of Club 1911 takes us back to a Hong Kong prior to the Chinese Revolution of 1911. Fans whirr on the ceiling and it is a must to order a gin and tonic at the beautiful bar of dark wood.

*Address: 27 Staunton Street, Soho
Phone: +852 2810 6681*

Delaney's

A bit of Ireland in Hong Kong. Choose from the ground floor's very popular Irish pub in black and white, or the restaurant and sports bar on the floor above – with its rustic Irish pub food.

*Address: One Capital Place, 18 Luard Road, Wan Chai
Phone: +852 2804 2880
Internet: www.delaneys.com.hk*

Dragon-i

Have a drink with Hong Kong's film and pop stars in this small but cosy designer club in Soho. It may be difficult to get into Dragon-I, but if you succeed it is well worth the effort. For those who don't manage to squeeze in, an alternative is happy hour from 6 pm – 9 pm.

*Address: Centrium, 60 Wyndham Street, Central
Phone: +852 3110 1222
Internet: www.dragon-i.com.hk*

Drop

At Drop you can enjoy yourself in deluxe style with well-mixed cocktails, soft lounge sofas and good house music. The design is minimalist, but the atmosphere relaxed and the DJ's good. Make sure you arrive early – after 10 pm. you need a member's card from Thursday to Saturday.

*Address: On Lok Mansion, 39-43 Hollywood Road, Central
Phone: +852 2543 8856
Internet: www.drophk.com*

C Club

Here you will find a good mix of tourists and Hong Kong residents dancing to international DJ's in the cosily designed cellar of California Tower.

*Address: California Tower, 30-32 D'Aguilar Street, Central
Phone: +852 2526 1139*

AntiqueBar

A elegant and comfortable place to have fun, enjoy the music and relax in a comfortable sofa. There is "Ladies Night" every Saturday and great DJ's. Every Weekend DJ's Johnathan & Chris is in The House.

*Address: Walden Hotel, 1/F No.353 Hennessy Road
Phone: +852 3678 3978
Internet: www.antiquebar.com.hk*

SHOPPING

©Adrian Leben

If you like shopping, you have come to the right place. Browse among beautiful Chinese antique bargains, designer clothes – but above all, electronic gadgets. The fact is that it is difficult to avoid shops wherever you are in the city.

The main shopping areas are to be found in the district of Tsim Sha Tsui in Kowloon and along Nathan Road, but these are not the only places by a long chalk.

Some highlights in the Centre include

Shanghai Tang (12 Pedder Street) - here you will find tasteful versions of traditional Chinese clothes. Another is Arch Angel Antiques (53-55 Hollywood Road) which actually specialises in antique porcelain, but here you will also find traditional Chinese furniture, books, vases, mah-jong games and handy gifts.

Half an hour's bus-ride from the city is the sandy beach at Stanley with its market. At Stanley Market you will find the usual souvenirs, and it is an easy way to get a little sand between your toes into the bargain. Another well-known market is Temple St Night Market (Tube: Yau Ma Tei, Jordan) that got its name from Tin Hau Temple in the same street. This is the perfect place for anyone looking for clothes and watches. In the northern part of the street you can eat anything from simple noodle soups to fancy Chinese dishes.

Even if you are not good at finding bargains by nature, come and get your share of the bargains during your stay in Hong Kong - a shopper's paradise.

A tip is to ask someone who lives in Hong Kong where he or she normally gets the best price - you will presumably get your best bargain there!

ESSENTIAL INFORMATION

Airports

Hong Kong's airport was previously in the city centre and it was an experience to fly in among the skyscrapers. But the new airport is still a major sight. Fêted as one of the most ambitious engineering projects ever, this large airport really is proof that the construction of an airport is a prestige project. And a work of art, too. The British architect, Sir Norman Foster, has described the building as homage to travellers in modern times.

The new high-tech airport is a little way outside Hong Kong, but Airport Express (HKD 180) leaves every twelve minutes between 5.50am and 12.48pm and takes you downtown in 24 minutes. Buses A11 (40 HKD) and A12 (45 HKD) also go into the city. A taxi to and from the airport costs approx. HKD 230 to Tsim Sha Tsui and HKD 280 to Central.

The airport has two terminals - Terminal 1 and Terminal 2. At www.hongkongairport.com you can easily find information about where to go and at which gate and terminal different airlines arrive or depart. At the airport there is also an Airport Ambassador Programme and a Costumer Service Centre you can turn to for more information and help.

Public Transport

The clean and modern MTR, the tube (www.mtr.com.hk), is often the quickest way to get around. A smart way is to buy an Octopus Card (www.octopuscards.com) which can be used on most of the local buses and trains. It costs around HKD 150 (HKD 50 in deposit and HKD 100 to travel) and gives you a 5-10 percent discount. You can also buy a one-day card on MTR for around HKD 55.

Buses cost HKD 1.40-45, depending on how far you travel, but remember that you need the exact amount or an Octopus Card to pay. There is also a small minibus (HKD 2.50-20) which is a mixture of taxi and bus and takes slightly longer but might take you closer to where you want to go.

Trams are a pleasant way to get around and cost HKD 2.

Taxi

It is cheap and simple to travel by taxi in Hong Kong – just flag down the first taxi that comes down the street. The initial charge is HKD 18, after 2 kilometres it costs 1.50 for 200 metres.

Post Office

The main post office is adjacent to the Star Ferry Terminal on Hong Kong Island.

Address: 2 Connaught Plaza
