Living ideas – Connecting lives

Best Airport in Europe 2005-2008, 2010, 2011
Best Airport in Central Europe 2012/13

Dear Stopover passenger

Welcome to Munich Airport.

See why Munich Airport has maintained its position among the world's best airports and has again been voted 6th in the Skytrax World Airport Awards. Munich Airport offers an unbeatable minimum connecting time of 30 minutes; however, for those passengers with longer connecting times, we are pleased to present this Stopover Guide.

There is so much to discover at Munich Airport, the surrounding region and Munich itself. So, take advantage of your time instead of sitting around and waiting! We developed this brochure as your personal guide, with a choice of suggestions on what to see and do, depending on the length of your stopover.

We wish you a pleasant stay, exciting discoveries and fascinating impressions. And of course, our best wishes for your further journey. We look forward to seeing you again soon.

Please keep in mind that passengers who want to visit attractions located outside of Munich Airport's security area, need the required documents.

Our ground staff will be happy to provide you with the following information regarding your connecting flight.

Kunstareal/Art District [3]

Around Pinakotheken and Königsplatz the Kunstareal is evolving: Situated close to the »Alte und Neue Pinakothek« and right next to the »Pinakothek der Moderne« with its 4 museums under one roof featuring 4 separate collections dedicated to modern art, the graphic arts, architecture and design, the »Museum Brandhorst« houses an impressive ensemble of works of modern and contemporary art. The »Antikensammlungen (State Antiques Collection) and Glyptothek« at Königsplatz rank among the world's most important museums for ancient art. Nearby the »Städtische Galerie im Lenbachhaus und Kunstbau« owes its reputation as a major international museum to its unique collection of works by »Der Blaue Reiter«. The reopening of the »Lenbachhaus« and the opening of the »State Museum for Egyptian Art« in 2013, enriched the scope of Munich's Art District.
